Student Services and Curriculum Development

Gallery teachers continue to provide meaningful gallery experiences for students on school field trips while consulting with teachers prior to their visit to facilitate connections to classroom learning. New options for guided museum tours include experiences for our youngest learners.

In partnership with Oakland County educators, the DIA expanded the online resources available to support student learning. Resources cover a broad range of grades and subjects and are now searchable by grade level and content on the DIA's new website.

New tours that are available now include:

- Starting with Art (PreK-1),
- Learning to Look (grade 2-4),
- Shaping Identity- Art of France (grades 3-12)
- Shaping Identity/Thinking Through Art (grades 3-12)

DIA staff hosted Homeschool Afternoons at the museum in January, February, and June. These events engaged more than 125 tri-county residents. Activities included art-making, drawing in the galleries, guided tour experiences of the collection, and a "Virtual Field Trip" to the DIA's conservation lab. Parents in the homeschool group "Metro Homeschool connections" also attended a workshop that provided an overview of the museum as a learning resource in November.

In school year 2017-2018, the DIA initiated the Teacher Advisory Group (TAG). Teachers from Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties meet quarterly to advise DIA staff and provide input on professional development workshops and curriculum resources.

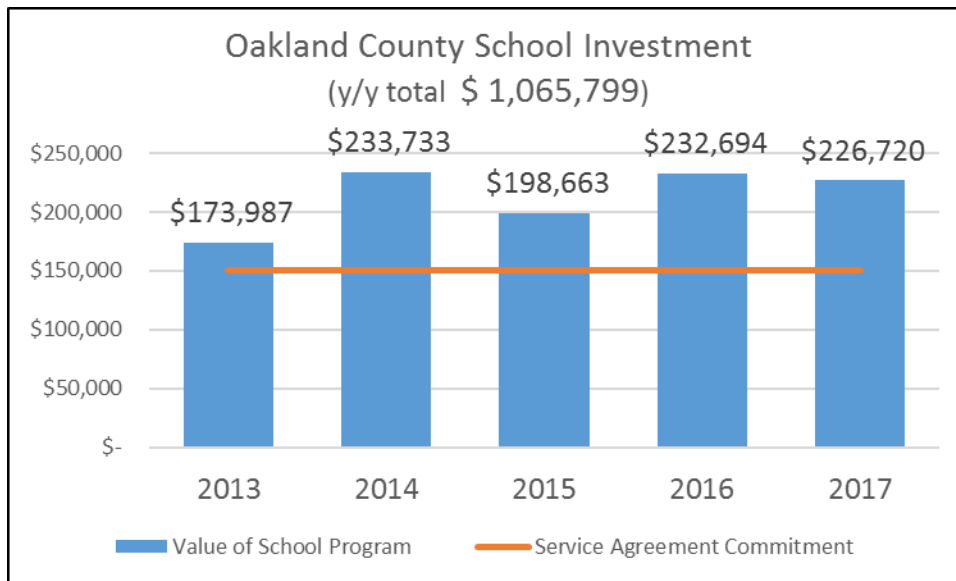

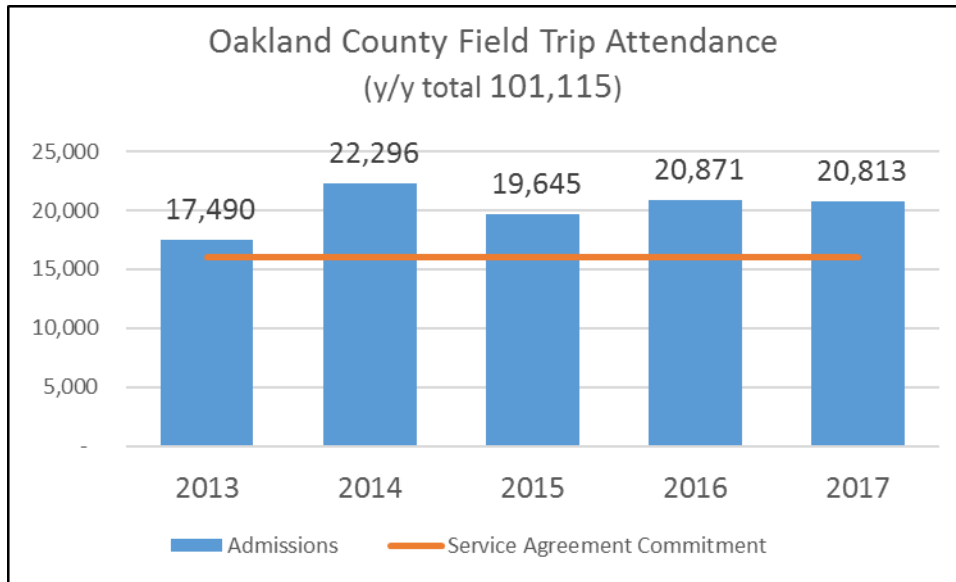

Art Discovery Program

United Oaks Elementary in Hazel Park participated in the Art Discovery Program in 2017.

All fourth- and fifth-graders came to the DIA for four visits that included guided exploration of the galleries and hands-on art making in the studio.

Free Student Field Trips with Bus Transportation

In 2017, 20,813 individuals participated in no-cost field trips to the DIA, exceeding the service agreement requirement of 16,000. Complimentary transportation was provided to all student groups.

Professional Development for Teachers

Attendance at teacher professional developments events included
375 participants from Oakland County.

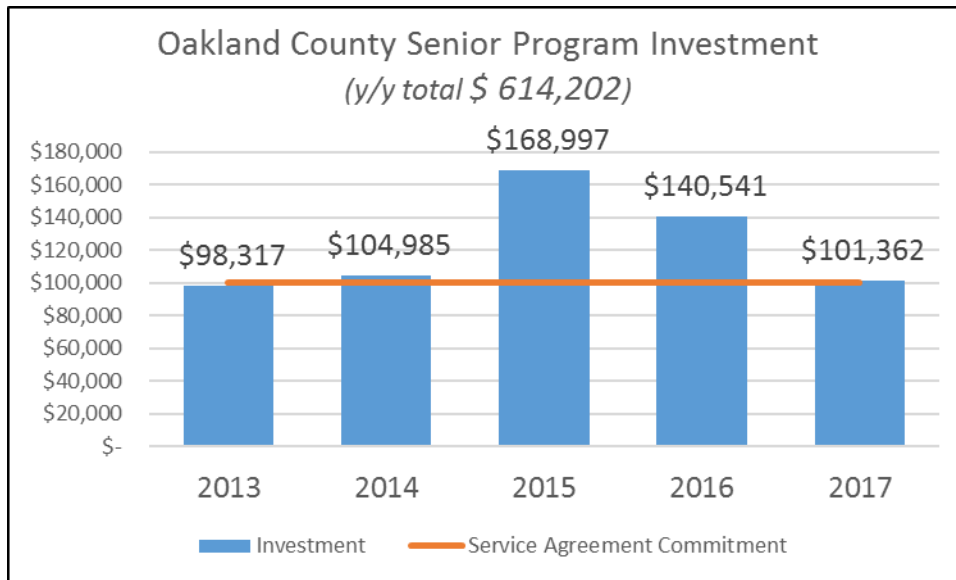

The DIA offered the following free teacher events and workshops to tri-county educators:

- January— Educator Evening - Gallery Engagement Strategies & Lumin Preview
- February— Say What I See workshop - a partnership with InsideOut Literary Arts and Educator Evening focused on African-American Art
- May— Educator Appreciation Event
- June—Partners in Inquiry Studio Workshop
- August— 3-Day Visual Thinking Strategies (VTS) Workshop —offered for two sessions and 3-Day Open Exploration Studio Workshop
- September—Monet: Framing Life Educator Preview & Open House
- October—1001 Inventions Open House (co-hosted with Michigan Science Center)
- November-- Wayne Regional Education Service Agency (RESA) –sponsored a (open to all tri-county educators) VTS introduction workshop

The DIA provided the following free customized professional development days to support partners' learning outcomes:

- Art teachers and instructional coaches from Birmingham Public Schools received Visual Thinking Strategies training. The final day of the three-part workshop was held in January.
- DIA educators visited Birmingham Public Schools Education and Administration Center in May to collaborate with educators and coaches about integrating VTS with the National Visual Arts Standards.
- Teachers from International Academy Troy worked with DIA educators in June to develop a plan for student engagement for the upcoming exhibition Art of Rebellion.
- Art teachers and instructional coaches from Birmingham Public Schools continued their coaching and training in VTS at the DIA in September and October.
- The DIA continued the partnership with Thompson K-8 International Academy (Southfield Public Schools) with VTS training and coaching in September, October, and November.
- In conjunction with the Michigan Art Educators Association (MAEA) Annual Conference in Detroit, the DIA hosted a night of tours and workshops at the museum in November.
- Staff from the Community Housing Network participated in a retreat at the museum designed to support team-building, out-of-the-box thinking, and to develop an appreciation for their coworkers in August.
- In partnership with the Oakland University Galileo Institute's Saudi Arabia Teachers Project, the DIA modeled unique opportunities for student engagement at the museum in October.
- DIA Studio instructors provided educators from Hazel Park Schools with a hands-on art-making workshop designed to support Reggio Emilia principles of inquiry and engagement in November.
- In November, DIA Studio Instructors participated in Oakland Schools' ArtsFirst event by providing hands-on art-making opportunities for art teachers.

Senior Program

The DIA’s senior program, Thursdays at the Museum, offered seniors (aged 55 and over) a different museum experience each Thursday of the month. Activities included gallery tours, art-making sessions, art talks and films shown in the Detroit Film Theatre. The Thursdays at the Museum program provides complimentary transportation to groups of 25 or more.

Art-making projects included zigzag books, paper flowers, tambourines, Uchiwa, watercolor postcards, travel journals, sugar skulls, printmaking notecards, and collage portraits.

Curators and interpretative programming volunteers offered visitors art talks including: Jill Shaw, Associate Curator European Art, on Impressionism; “Vogue” on fashion, jewelry and body art as a form of personal expression; “Through Her Eyes II” on women photographers; and Diego Rivera and the Detroit Industry Murals.

Museum Director, Salvador Salort-Pons engaged participants with his Director’s Cut talk detailing his background and vision of the museum.

The DIA’s Curator of Film Programs, Elliot Wilhelm, provided films that included Seven Chances, The Freshman, Harold and Lillian, Abacus: Small Enough to Jail, and Cameraperson.

In December a free matinee of Woodward Wonderland, a production by the Mosaic Youth Theatre, was offered as a special senior event.

The DIA hosted 59 senior group trips to the museum attended by 1,880 Oakland County residents.
All groups were offered complimentary bus transportation.

Community Collaborations with Local Arts Organizations and Cities, Townships and Villages

Inside|Out

Over the past eight years, the museum has partnered with more than 100 tri-county community organizations and engaged residents with art reproductions in the places where they live, work, and play.

The DIA collaborated with the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History to reproduce 10 images from their permanent collection and added them to the Inside|Out collection. Additional support was awarded by the Knight Foundation to complete an evaluation of the first eight years of Inside|Out. The insight gathered from this process will help to inform and refine the project moving forward.

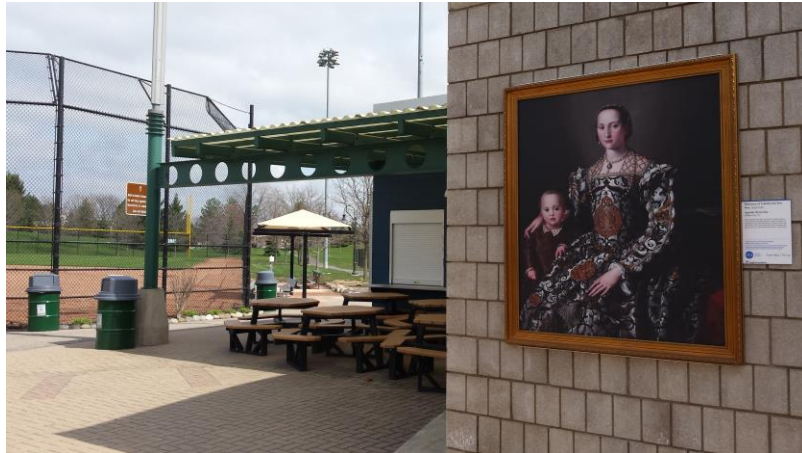

Inside|Out communities hosted walking tours of the reproductions, music performances and art talks.

Spring communities included:

Clawson, Farmington, Franklin, and Novi

Summer communities featured:

Auburn Hills, Clarkston, Highland Township, and Troy

DIA Away: Think Like An Artist brings educational and hands on art experiences to Oakland County communities.

College Night

The DIA hosted College Night in February, welcoming more than 400 students from the tri-county area to enjoy live music, free admission to the Bittersweet: Coffee, Tea and Chocolate exhibition and a reception and dance party.

Complimentary transportation service was provided to Oakland University and Lawrence Technological University.

County Days

County Days continued to be one of the DIA's signature access programs, providing bus transportation to the museum for residents on select Saturdays, twice in 2017.

The following community partners served as pickup locations for County Days.

Auburn Hills Community Center
Clarkston Independence Library
Farmington City Hall
Downtown Milford
Novi Civic Center

Art Beats and Eats

The DIA returned to Arts, Beats and Eats for the fourth year, hosting daily demonstrations by area artists. DIA Away- a mobile, interactive learning experience attracted more than 2,700 participants to the children's area of the festival.

Canvas Pontiac

In partnership with Pontiac Downtown Business Association and the City of Pontiac, the DIA supported Canvas Pontiac's efforts to bring art and culture to the community. The DIA also provided jurying and consulting services.

Southfield Field Zone

In a collaborative effort to bring meaningful experiences with art of all forms into the community, the DIA invited Concrete Temple Theatre to lead a puppetry workshop with members of Field Zone - the Southfield Boys & Girls Club.

Lead by Concrete Temple Theatre artistic directors, participants in Losing It! experienced different forms of shadow puppetry by creating their own puppets and writing/directing their own puppet show. Field Zone participants presented their work before Concrete Temple Theatre's performance of Geppetto – Extraordinary Extremities in the Detroit Institute of Arts' Lecture Hall in October.

Community Group Art Making

The DIA has partnered with local social service agencies through the Studio's Community Group Program. Participating groups this year included: My Place Center for Wellness in Oak Park, Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency, SUN TimeBank, Grandparents Raising Grandchildren in Pontiac

Sessions began with a Visual Thinking Strategies tour in the galleries, followed by an art-making experience in the studio. Learner-centered teaching was employed throughout each visit, engaging participants at their own individual skill level while encouraging personal expression and reflection.

The DIA hosted the ninth annual Community Group Show in the fall where participants shared their creative process and displayed their work. Over one hundred art works made in the program were displayed.

Fairs and Festivals

DIA studio teaching artists provided art-making workshops to more than 3,500 participants at the following locations.

Kensington Park Art Fair / Milford
Art on the Grand / Farmington
Clay, Glass, and Metal Show / Royal Oak
Berkley Street Art Fair
Huron Valley Arts Festival / Walled Lake
Clawson Farmers Market
Dragon on the Lake / Lake Orion
Art & Apples / Rochester
DIY Art Fair / Ferndale

Jewish Community Center and Holocaust Memorial Center

In partnership with JCC and the Holocaust Memorial Center and in support of the annual, regional Jewish Book Fair, the DIA hosted a book talk by Simon Goodman, the author of The Orpheus Clock.

Reservations for this free public event were filled within 48 hours with 380 people attending.

Royal Oak Commission for the Arts

The DIA collaborated with the Royal Oak Commission for the Arts to provide programming support to activate eight piano installations throughout downtown Royal Oak.

The DIA provided professional musicians to perform and engage the audiences in music making at multiple locations throughout the city over six weekends in September and October.

Arts and Health Symposium

In September, the DIA hosted the Arts & Health Symposium in partnership with Art & Healing Michigan. One hundred and fifty participants from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties attended the daylong meeting for presentations by leaders in arts and healthcare.

The symposium focused on how to build a tool kit to plan and implement hospital arts programs with presentations by professionals from the DMC Children's Hospital of Michigan, Beaumont/Oakwood, Henry Ford Health Systems, St. John Providence Health System, Michigan Medical, Challenge Detroit, Ford Motor Company, Prison Creative Art Project, Birmingham Bloomfield Art Center, the Detroit Institute of Arts, and Wayne State University School of Medicine.

The keynote speaker, J. Todd Frazier, the President of the National Organization of Arts and Health and Director of Houston Methodist Hospital Center of the Performing Arts Medicine, provided information on the state of arts and healthcare nationally. Beth Biennu, Director of Accessibility at the National Endowment of the Arts, discussed funding and sustainability for arts programs in healthcare settings. DIA director, Salvador Salort-Pons, also gave the closing remarks focusing on the role of art in supporting healthy communities.

Minds on Art

The DIA continued the partnership with the Alzheimer's Association of Michigan bringing individuals living with memory loss and dementia (including Alzheimer's disease) and their care partners to the DIA for gallery discussions and hands-on studio workshops.

Participation is free and available to residents in the tri-county area. In 2017, two 5-week sessions were held for early-stage participants on Mondays and two 5-week sessions were held on Tuesdays for mid-stage participants and their respective care partners.

The partnership expanded its community outreach activities for tri-county residents at the Alzheimer's Association offices in Southfield. DIA trained volunteers facilitated Visual Thinking Strategies sessions based on images of artwork from the DIA collection on nine Mondays January-March 2017.

Also included in 2017 was a hands-on art-making session at the Alzheimer's Association, facilitated by the DIA's studio artists.

Ofrenda Altars – Mexican Consulate in Detroit

A call for proposals was extended to tri-county residents and non-profit organizations for Ofrenda Altars- memorial displays to honor ancestors on the Mexican holiday: Day of the Dead.

Selected artists participated in a panel discussion moderated by the staff of the Mexican Consulate in Detroit attended by more than 300 public visitors. The artists' work was exhibited from October 13 through Nov 12 and was viewed by just over 29,000 visitors. Seventeen artists were provided a stipend to create their works at the DIA.

County Leaders Event

County leaders attended receptions for the DIA's spring exhibition Bittersweet: Coffee, Tea & Chocolate and fall exhibition Monet: Framing Life and Church: A Painter's Pilgrimage.

Support for Community Groups and Schools

The DIA supports schools and community groups in their fundraising efforts through donations of special exhibition tickets.

Michigan Student Film Festival

The DFT hosted DAFT's (Digital Arts and Film and Television) 49th Michigan Student Film Festival in April featuring screenings of Best of Show winners in two categories: K-8 and 9-12 grades.

Scholastic Art Awards

The Detroit Film Theater was the site for the award ceremony for the 2017 Southeastern Michigan Region of the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards competition. The DIA partnered with Detroit's College for Creative Studies to coordinate the event, attended by approximately 2,000 students, family members, and guests over two days.

Director's Cut Talks

DIA Director, Salvador Salort Pons shared his vision for the museum and answered resident's questions at his Director's Cut talks at Oakland County community events.

Locations included Leadership Oakland in Farmington Hills, Birmingham Community House, and the Older Persons Commission in Rochester.

Additional Outreach

The DIA's conservation department collaborated with Detroit Public Television on a Virtual Field Trip providing access for students and teachers to a behind the scenes exploration of the conservation lab.

Transportation was provided for Interfaith Leadership Council of Metro Detroit's Religious Diversities Journeys after school enrichment program. Students from Sashabaw Middle School, Walled Lake, West Bloomfield, Beverly Hills Academy, Brandon Middle School, Huda School, and Mason Middle School participated.

Transportation was also provided to the Huntington Woods Study Club and Highland Township Library for a museum visit.

Curatorial-led tours of the museum were provided to Mercy High School and Oakland Community College and a tour of the prints and drawing department was provided to students at Oakland University.

DIA curators participated as panelist for the Jewish Federation of Detroit and provided a lecture at Meadowbrook Hall. A conservation lecture was provided to Oakland Community College's Adult Learning Institute.

DIA conservators provided consultation services to Kadima Mental Health Services Creative Expressions Program

Consultations and jurying services were provided to the Birmingham Community House – Student Art Town Exhibition.

The Detroit Institute of Arts partnered with the Detroit City Chess Club and the Roeper School Chess Club to bring Grandmaster Manuel Leon Hoyos to Detroit for a simultaneous match with 25 members of each club.
